A monthly newsletter for members and friends of University Presbyterian Church

October 2012

Pastor's Column

UPC is a beehive of activity this fall. There is a difference, however, between "busyness" and participating in ministries which help others and further our faith. One drains, the other sustains. Perhaps you can find a ministry in which your gifts can be offered to God and others.

The New Beginnings Small groups are in full swing, meeting throughout these weeks at the church and in members' homes. A schedule of these gatherings is enclosed in this newsletter for your benefit. If you haven't already joined a group, please consider making this important commitment to our congregation. Your participation in as many of these gatherings as possible will have an important impact on the direction our congregation will take in the upcoming years.

You won't want to miss the acoustic guitar concert event coming up this month, featuring Dennis Erikson's son Dan and his friend Ashley as they share their original music. It is an event appropriate for all ages so bring a friend along!

Our children will once again help lead worship on October 14 as we celebrate a Children's Sabbath and pray for the issues confronting children in our country.

The Adult Education class will involve lively conversation as Dr. Timothy Wadkins helps us explore the challenging as well as joyful texts of the Bible.

The Food Pantry, which operates twice a week, is always in need of volunteers. Perhaps you have the opportunity to assist in this important ministry.

In November, UPC will once again assist Crossroads Lutheran Church and the Family Promise program by providing food for the families in a time of homelessness. Your hands could help offer nourishment to body and spirit.

The monthly Taize services will continue to feed our souls on the First Friday of every month. This service draws a faithful core of folks who find it source of spiritual sustenance. If you haven't ever come, you are missing something special.

A bountiful table has been spread for us: opportunities to serve as well as those which will support us for the journey. Come feast with us!

Shalom, Tracy

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 7:30 P.M.

The clergy in the Eggertsville Snyder area announce a community wide Thanksgiving service to be held on Tuesday, November 20 at 7:30 p.m. at Crossroads Lutheran Church, 4640 Main Street. The entire community is invited to attend. Everyone is asked to bring canned goods for our local food pantry at the University Presbyterian Church. All monetary offerings will also be given to the pantry.

Thank you for your help in getting the word out to the entire community.

Rev. Nancy A. Milleville

Food Pantry By The Numbers

Each month, the UPC Food Pantry submits a report to the Food Bank of Western New York, indicating how many households were served during the month, and how many individuals make up those households. We share these statistics with our congregation, which provides such generous support to our pantry, both in time and in donations.

Anyone interested in volunteering one afternoon a month at the Pantry can call Barbara Pearson, 833-3163.

August 2012
Infants	2
Children	101
Adults	195
Elderly	33
Total	331
Households:	167
Equivalent meals	2,979

These numbers only tell part of the story of this important and meaningful ministry. It is the people behind the numbers, those who receive this food and offer us their thanks and blessings, and this congregation who provide such generous support, both in time and in donations, that are the essence and the real story that these numbers represent. Our thanks to all of you.

Christian Education Opportunities This Fall

Children's Class:

Children (ages 5 years through 7th grade) will meet in a multi-aged class, taught by a team of rotating teachers. Class time will start with music, offered by Tiffany Whitefield, collective time as an entire group, followed by smaller groups for age-based activities.

Teachers this fall will be: Marge Waldron (Sept. 16-Oct. 7), Amy Erikson (Oct. 14-Nov. 18), and Ginna Coon (Dec. 2-23). Jude Hammer and Sandy Robertson will alternate as classroom aides.

Adult Class:

The remaining Sundays in the fall semester will be taught by Dr. Timothy Wadkins, Professor of Religious Studies at Canisius College. Dr. Wadkins, always a popular and engaging teacher, will lead us in a discussion of the following topic:

“The Good, the Bad and the Ugly: The Bible and Christian Faith”

Part history, part theology, and part autobiography, this series will discuss questions about the Bible in the context of faith. How exactly are we to understand the role of the Bible in Christian history? What does it mean to affirm the inspiration and authority of Scripture? How should the Bible be interpreted? What are we to do about difficult parts of the Bible, such as those which depict infant sacrifice or genocide in God's name? All of these questions and more will be addressed in this series.

Come join in what promises to be a most stimulating conversation!

First Friday
AT UNIVERSITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Too many of us lead hectic lives.

Our communities are filled with violence and suffering.

Our personal pain and struggles can overwhelm us.

How do we respond? How can we cope?

University Presbyterian Church welcomes Christians from all traditions to unite in a special contemplative worship experience as we seek spiritual strength for the living of our days. Based on the style of worship practiced in the Taize Christian community in France, these services offered on the First Friday of each month provide an oasis at the end of the week for all who are weary, troubled, or rushed. Special music from guest musicians, meditative songs, prayers, candles, and scripture readings allow each of us to find a quiet place of prayer and spiritual centering.

We invite you to join us on Friday, October 5 from 5:30 - 6 p.m. University Presbyterian Church is located at 3330 Main St., Buffalo (across the street from UB South Campus) with parking available in the church lot off Niagara Falls Boulevard. The church is also conveniently accessible using public transportation by taking bus or train to the University Metro station. Questions can be directed to the church office at 836-7660.
